FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JUNE 10, 2014

SUNSHINE COAST COUPLE BEAT OVER 8,000 AUSTRALIANS TO BE NAMED
THE 2014 FOLLOW THE SUN AMBASSDORS

Sunshine Coast couple, Denise and Terry Parks are today celebrating as they were named one of three 2014 Dometic Follow the Sun ambassadors.

Beating over 8,000 hopefuls across the country, the Parkes were chosen as ambassadors and will receive a makeover of up to $25,000 to their already impressive Jayco 5th wheeler and will be sent on an all expenses paid 13-week trip across New South Wales.

Denise was so excited when hearing the news, tears were streaming down her face.

"I could not believe it when I won! I was so so happy to hear the news and so excited, I was actually crying! Terry thought it was so funny, he even filmed it!" Denise said.

"Terry and I have been camping for years but since retiring last year, we have had more time to really follow our dreams and get out and see this amazing country. We are very excited to have our Jayco 5th wheeler upgraded with Dometic products so we can set off on this adventure in style!"

Denise and Terry will set off on their adventure at the start of August starting in Tweed Heads and taking in the beautiful New South Wales landscape, making stops in Yamba, Byron Bay, Tamworth, Bathurst and many more.

Leaving behind their three grown up daughters and nine grandchildren, the Parkes will be able to enjoy some rest and relaxation along the way. Denise only retired from nursing last year and Terry himself is semi-retired, so the Follow the Sun trip will be a welcome break.

Dometic Australia's General Manager After Market Sales, Paul Montaut welcomed the Parks' onboard the Follow the Sun campaign.

STATE RALLY CLUB STALL - Nanango We are looking for any items members can MAKE, BAKE OR DONATE(This includes wool and material) to raise funds for the RFDS. Remember these items don't have to be expensive - everyone likes a bargain so suitable items valued from $2 +++ would be appreciated. It is hoped that we can have a $2 draw table and we need any items valued over $5 that are unused or in very good condition which could be used for this purpose - a great time for a clean out of all those gifts you cannot find a use for! A few items will be on display for sale or in some cases, order, at the Kalbar and Kenilworth rallies.

Please contact Gwen or Carol if you can help.

Book Club Report

ONCE AGAIN I WOULD LIKE TO REPEAT THE INVITATION TO EVERYONE WHO LIKES TO READ AND CHAT ABOUT BOOKS, THAT OUR Q.C.C. BOOK CLUB MEMBERS WELCOME YOU TO JOIN US EVERY RALLY WEEKEND AT 8.00 am ON THE SATURDAY MORNING WHERE THE MEETING IS BEING HELD. Bring your coffee if you have not had time to finish it before coming.

At the Pine Rivers Rally Ann recommended "The Wedding Gifts" by M.S.Bodden, Bob's choice was "Paper Money" by Ken Follett, I loved that also and Nerida suggested a 7 book series called "The O'Malley Family" by D. Henderson. This indicates that we talk about the books we have recently read as well as the chosen book for the month. The books for the next three months are-
 July-"Eureka" by Peter Fitzsimmons..... August-"Dirt Music" by Tim Winton
 Sept.- State Rally- 3 books listed in the last QCC WANDERER
 Oct.-"The Hare with the Amber Eyes" by Edmund De Waal.(Merle has stories to tell about this one)

SO DO JOIN US, EVEN IF YOU HAVE NOT READ THE BOOK FOR THE MONTH. Mary.

A gentle reminder for the "Bow Wow Brigade"

Apparently there have been a couple of casual mentions been made regarding the presence of dogs at the Happy Hour meetings. The Committee thought it would be a good time to reiterate the clubs rules in this matter. For Hygiene reasons dogs are not permitted at gatherings where food and drink are consumed. In the event a dog owner holds a happy hour at their van it would be up to the individual to decide whether or not to attend.

Bit of late news which missed the last Magazine.-----Side trip to Maidenwell

After the Pittsworth Rally, There were eight couples who travelled over to Maidenwell to attend the Observatory, and we were blessed with a beautiful clear night sky..It is always uncertain what the weather will be like, no Stars, Cloud cover and or rain! However, we were lucky. Free Camping behind the Maidenwell Pub, who gave the wives a break from cooking and, incidentally has definitely got almost the best Chef on the Downs Although the weather was probably a tad, tad, tad colder than Pittsworth, the Heavens were a sight for sore eyes This was awesome, we were blessed to see the Stars, Planets and Moon which has several Craters on it. The freezing cold did not dampen our spirits and for over 2 hours, our Host James' knowledge of the Solar System kept us all hanging onto every word. We are just sorry more couldn't attend. Cheers, Dell,

From Reg Foster. He asked me to thank everyone for the card and good wishes after his recent Hospitalisation. A special Mention for Bob Kearney and Dennis Edney, without whose help he would have been unable to attend a lot of recent rallies, They are always there for him or arranging someone else if they weren't at a Rally.

Now, time for a couple of fun competitions.

Comp No1 The Old Noggins thing has raised its head again (forgive the pun)! This time it should be easier as it is the Ladies turn and we all know how they like to check each other out!! Pictures below: Send entries by email or scribble on a bit of paper!

Comp No 2 is organized by Neil Chesney.

Please write 50 to 100 words about yourself. Make it as mysterious as you can but factual. Add your name and send it to Neil Chesney nches@bigpond.com

At each meeting we will pick out a name & ask 3 people to identify you and a prize will be given for a correct guess. "PLEASE" send your "Who am I" NOW!

This next item is an example of the embellishment which can take place by our own additions to rumours or stories we come across, to spice them up a bit.

I heard at the last Rally that one of our members had won a small share in a Lotto syndicate and was going to, along with his wife, celebrate with a couple of days away.

4 days later I was told that Ian Egen had won $20 million in an online scam and after buying a large share in XXXX brewery, selling his van, buying a large motor cruiser, mooring it off Cairns (near the Casino), changing to a polygamous religion & getting several more young wives, was going to drink, gamble and fornicate himself into oblivion !!...Lucky Devil lolol

Entertainment report for Lawnton

As is the norm, Thursday and Friday were taken up with early arrivals settling in.

Saturday Lawnton being Lawnton, true to form, myriads of people where up and about for the Saturday markets. I enjoyed a rare snack seeing as "She who likes to be obeyed if she gets chance" wasn't about....A whole greasy, garlicy,yuuuumy cheese kabana !!!!

Later in the day we had jewellery tuition session which was well attended. So we should see the benefit of this session on our future sales tables!! This was followed by a talk on the intricacies and vagaries of our favourite communication tool on the road, the CB radio. Patrick did a sterling job,answering all our queries

Saturday Arvo and the "Crafty Crew" took possession of the hall.It was like an Asian sweatshop in operation,with one small difference.,At least REAL sweatshop workers get paid something! Even I got shanghied (or press ganged ) into action. Went to offer my services with a machine that was being a bit obnoxious..and bingo. I sat there for the next couple of hours,drawing on my long defunct skills in the Rag Trade.

The crew are turning out an astonishing variety of goodies. We should have a good result from our Stall at the State Rally.

Saturday Night was our "Progressive Dance" night. Many thanks to Jan & Laurie Menere for their input, offering their expertise at this particular type of dancing. All present enjoyed themselves immensely as can be seen from the following selection of photos. Few comments were necessary. (well...a couple maybe!!)

Don't often see Kevin & Carol in this position!

This Lady must have spent all her loot on her last trip.....Had to wear old laddered tights !!

Sunday was basically a lazy day, a lot of members taking a trip into the Caravan Show in Brisbane. Although, usually it is an easy trip with the train station being just across the road from The Showground, but QR in their wisdom took advantage of the long weekend to do maintenance on the line so the trip entailed a bus to Northgate to catch a train. But being QCC members, we persevered....

In the evening we had a "rotating games" night, consisting of, Mini.Golf cum Croquet, Quoits and Carpet Bowls.
