Presidents Report

Gooday Members

Pittsworth has been one of my favourite rally sites, during my 13 years in the caravan club. We have held two State rallies here in 2003 & 2009.

Good to see 56 caravans attend, with second time visitors Janelle Donaldson & Peter & Gail Johnston. Also we had two couples inducted into the club at this rally Mike & Diane Perry & Roger & Laurel Adams.

Friday morning 14 golfers enjoyed playing golf at the local golf club in Pittsworth, the sunny skies made it even more pleasant. Great to see three ladies participating as well and some keen golf scores.

Friday afternoon the Management Meeting was held, and I think the change of time slot was approved by all members on the committee.

Friday night brought out 16 keen card players, The venue in the small hall area was very cool but better than the large building. But a cup of tea & coffee warmed everyone after the conclusion of the card game.

Saturday morning after the meeting, over 50 members, attended the Careflight morning tea in Toowoomba. This was a very enjoyable morning tea and everyone who attended spoke very highly of this activity. Then a tagalong tour, from Toowoomba back to Pittsworth was also enjoyed by members. Merv Kahler thank you for organising both these events.

Saturday afternoon we celebrated our 67th birthday afternoon tea. We had past Presidents Ken McNab, Bert Beker, Roy Bridges, Bob Kearney and myself cut the birthday cake. Thank you to Margaret Hiller for organising the afternoon tea.

Saturday night 58 players were involved in a game of Trivia, organized and run by Margaret Hiller. This was a fun night and some very strong opposition and debating from many members. Margaret, thank you for the night, we all appreciate your skills and laughs during the night.

I would like to thank the rally marshals for another great rally. Members, thank you all who helped with the table and chairs, for the meeting in the hall. Then, returning them back to the store building. This made my job a lot easier with all your help.

Safe travelling to all the members, who are now on their travels around Australia. Stay safe, happy, healthy and look forward to seeing you all at Samford for our June rally.

President John.

This major sporting event is almost upon us. As teams will need to make some team items, could you please bring along to the rally glue, scissors, staplers, safety pins, crayons or felt pens or colouring in pencils. Don't go buying these, just what you have around.

Team colours are red, yellow, blue and green and as you do not know what team you are in yet, could you see if you can find items of clothing in these colours eg club shirts, state rally shirts, head bands etc.

Do you need to be fit – no? Do you need to run – no? All you need is enthusiasm, be prepared to have a go and be prepared to have a lot of fun.

The special guests will be impressed by a big turn out at Samford by our club.

Kev Day

Secretary Brenda is trying a new approach to the usual Notice Board. In future there won't be any papers pinned to the board. All paperwork will be sorted into categories and displayed on the table in folders, which will have the contents listed on the front.

News was released at the Pittsworth Rally that the next years State Rally will be held in Goondiwindi and will be run by CCRQ with local input. 18th to- 25thSept 2017

And people wonder why others jump to conclusions. It didn't go entirely unnoticed at one of the meetings that President John, on a number of occasions, mistakenly called Paul Brearley "Pauline". Now Moi, not being adverse to a bit of gossip, started thinking!! Does John know something we don't.? Paul is going away shortly and I don't know where. But I have heard of those dodgy places like Thailand where anyone can get anything done !! ....Hope he don't come back with a sexy voice, no Adams apple and wearing Di's clothes....Just Kidding.....I hope !

MISTY MORN AT PITTSWORTH

By Mary E. Metcalfe ©
15 May 2016

*A thick fog blanketed the still sleeping campground
Here and there an early walker could, perhaps, be found
Bird calls welcomed in another Pittsworth dawn
Some yet in bed only pulled up the covers stifling a yawn!*

*Ghostly tall trees watched like sentinels above us all
Strong cold winds earlier were on the turn
Eliminating for any camper concern
About shaky gum limbs that might fall.*

Ever so slowly the sun's golden and pink rays quietly pierced the enveloping cloud revealing-- oh so many caravan outlines whose owners were members of the QCC proud.

*First light morning chill gave way to gloriously sunny days
Trips to Careflight and Downs Steam were just two of the ways
In which "fellowship on wheels" was enjoyed
An autumn rally on the Darling Downs sure pays!*

*No shortage of activities we found close by the Showgrounds
Golf, shopping, walking to a fresh bakery,
And nearby hotel dining with a brisk walk home
Examples of just what could be found.*

*What a great extended weekend we have all spent
As this venue, itself so fortunately lent
To a birthday party so fine
Sixty-seven years as a club across the line.*

*Members consumed pikelet fare and cream birthday cake
While colourful balloons hung aloft blew in the breeze
And instrumental and vocal music the artists did make
As the sun sank lower in the west, beyond the trees.*

*Our evening mental stimulation also did not miss a beat
Margaret's Australian Trivia was indeed a fun-filled show
With each team making it a somewhat noisy feat.*

*So much work goes on regularly for each rally
Behind the scene
Just attend a monthly club gathering
And you'll sure see what I mean!*

Thank you to all those who provide pleasure and activities for the rest of us.

Thought this was a great idea!

add some lighting fuel to the Centre
then light it up!!

Terse Verse
*The caravanners stood at the Pearly Gates,
their faces were sad and old,
they humbly asked the man of fate
for admission to the fold.*

*“What have you done” St. Peter asked
“to gain admission here?”
“We were on the committee, Sir” they said,
“for most of this long year.”*

*The gates flew open sharply
as Peter pressed the bell.
“Come inside and take a harp –
you’ve had enough of hell!”*

Pittsworth Activity Report.

Usual crop of sneaky pics to start the proceedings off !!

Never volunteer!!..important job they told me...“Equine Enforcer” they said...“Horsie Hygiene Engineer” even! Truth is, I'm just a Pony Poo Picker Upper !!... Sigh!

What do call 4 Ukelele Players ?

Kathy,Keith,Jenny and Denise of course

Hmm,think I got a stone under me Bra and it scratched me glass.....Just as well Women don't get that problem.Be a funny place to get gravel rash !!

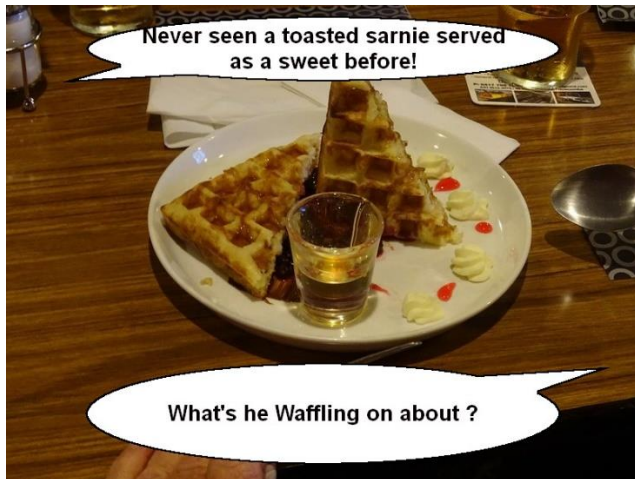

But Mum,I don't want to ride with dad.

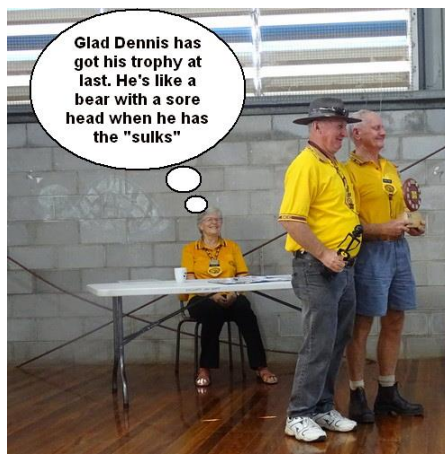

It'll do you good Darren and get you fit for the 'limpics yehbut, yehbut, Dad Rides like a girl and goes around trying to find editors with cameras!!

Friday evening saw some 60 souls attend the local Hostelry for Dinner. Although the Hotel was forewarned of our attendance they did a magnificent job of serving our crowd in double quick time. I reckon they served the first wave of about 50 patrons in 35minutes flat and the later stragglers well within the hour. Amazing work and lovely meals. A bunch of us “worked off “ our meal with a little light exercise at the Card tables later in the evening.

Saturday dawned cool and clear. After the inductions etc at the meeting, a large number of Members gathered for the trip into Toowoomba for Care Flight Outing.

As I wasn't able to go on the tour, Lance Haslewood did the photo honours for me. It was reportedly a very informative and enjoyable experience, relaxed enough to allow some of our Members to play "silly sods" now and again.

Merv Kahler supervised the drawing of the winning ticket for the second Careflight bear, won by Whilst. Kevin Day presented a Cheque for the Careflight share of raffle proceeds from QCC.

After their Morning tea, the crowd left for the return trip Via a visit to "Downs Steam" Railway Museum. This I would really have liked to see as I am a railway enthusiast and never knew it existed until people returned!

The Exhibition had a good assortment of Restored and partly restored old Rolling stock, from Basic stuff down to "Downs" like Luxurious. And of course some weird and wonderful artefacts as all these places seem to have!!

These Guys look like their on a "Mission"

Thanks for the pics and helpful Brochures Lance, much appreciated.

After an interesting Morning ,it was a mad dash Back to Pittsworth where the “Ladies Auxillary” and Male helpers had been busy preparing for our 67th Birthday Party celebrations.

Afternoon tea nibbles were spread around the venue and tea & coffee was being served, whilst we were serenaded by an assortment of our musical talent.

Uh Oh, Looks like Carol and Gordon got a mouthful of something nasty!!

The Birthday Cake was Cut by 5 Present, Past Presidents !!! Sort that one out if ya can !

As Dusk fell, it was a quick dash back to the Vans for a change to warmer clothes and out again to the Australian Trivia Quiz night, hosted by Margie Hiller. Now I'm not saying we are a bunch of Dummies, but Margie dug up some questions that weren't out of left field, they were out of the flippin' universe. She used her well travelled life to fox us all and we didn't come out of the comp smellin' of roses, not even the winners. Of course, we could use our ages as excuses 'cos I'm sure most of us tell our kids that we've "Forgotten more than they know".

Anyway, it was a good turnout and a cracking game enjoyed immensely by all participants!!! The winners, on the right, thoroughly deserved their win and as you can plainly see, .....winners are grinners

Sunday had the usual low key meeting, especially after such a hectic weekend. It was wound up by a visit from long time QCC Acquaintance, Roz Scotney, who filled us in on her pursuits and pastimes since she was Mayor of Pittsworth.

Right;.....Intuition.....

Like only "The Can Man Can"
