QCC - Established 1949

December/January 2020

President's Report - Dec/Jan 2020

It is with a heavy heart and much sadness that I commence my report with the announcement of the passing on Tuesday 22nd December of former QCC member Trevor Bromley. Trevor had been ill for some time.

Trevor and Nola joined the club in October 1995 and resigned in February 2020. They had achieved 150 rallies at the Dayboro rally in May 2019.

Trevor had served on the committee and was entertainment coordinator 2000-2001. He was a great singer and had preformed many a song at rallies over the years. He will be sadly missed by those members who knew him. A very happy and likeable person as was Nola.

Wednesday 02 December. Well, after a challenging year, our Toogoolawah Christmas rally was finally upon us. When Di and I arrived at Toogoolawah it was very hot. We set-up, and that evening, 22 members went to the Exchange Hotel for dinner. The dining room and bar was nicely air-conditioned which was a bonus. The meals were big, hearty and of superb quality. 20 vans arrived.

Thursday 03 December. Busy setting-up the hall with chairs and tables for the craft/sewing classes. Five ladies went to golf at 5:00am to beat the heat where they had loads of fun. The afternoon was spent with Marg Hiller, Helen Judge and other ladies decorating the hall in the Christmas theme. Later that evening, members played cards.

Friday 04 December. A very hot day forecast. 15 men departed for golf at 5:00am. As the lyrics go "Only mad dogs and Englishmen (and golfers) bask in the midday sun." I had a bad game but a lot of fun in the sun! The course was very dry.

Thank you to Jim and Sue Thorpe for arranging the bicycle ride to the Yinbun Railway Tunnel. Later, we had the monthly committee meeting and Yvonne Robbins took her sewing class, Marg Hiller her craft class and Bev Green her card-making class. All were well attended. We also had around 20 members go to bowls. This is proving quite popular and growing all the time.

Annex/awning happy hour as arranged by Richard Van Wyk was again very successful. Thanks Richard.

The evening was wonderful with Barry and Wendy Gibson having their 'Carols by Caravan' with video prompting and on-stage entertainment. So many hours and considerable hard work put-in by them. Thank you members for bringing a plate of goodies. 'It looked a lot like Christmas.'

Saturday 05 December.

A beautiful Christmas cake cooked and iced by Pat Barr which was cut by our newest life members Kevin and Carol Day. The cake was had for morning tea. Plenty for everyone and seconds, too.

We had our club meeting at which new members Mary and Ted Slattery were welcomed into the Club. Following the meeting, Sue Baker held her pastel drawing class with some wonderful roses created.

Again, another very hot day with 44 in the shade.

Happy hour was held in the hall with the showground staff and volunteers supplying the nibbles which were yum. The staff also cooked members a wonderful and delicious Christmas meal served so quickly. We were also lucky to see Santa who gave us all a yellow, engraved QCC pen for Christmas. Thank you Santa for we know how busy you are at this time of year.

The Club's Christmas entertainment was provided by e 'OZ Boys' who did a excellent job with a repertoire of many nostalgic and popular songs. Good to see so many members up dancing.

Sunday 06 December. Again very hot. We had our Sunday meeting which was a full-on meeting with so much to cover including our mega Christmas raffle which comprised 35 prizes all wrapped by Carmel Abraham and Gail Lander. The raffle was well supported by our members and brought-in a nice sum.

Despite many members heading for home, we still had 20 vans stay the night after a very relaxing afternoon.

A BIG thank you to all members who have helped our club in so many ways throughout the year. There are just so many of you who help tirelessly and our club would not be as good and successful without you.

A special thank you to our committee who this year gave up so much of their time and were committed to making sure QCC remains cohesive and one of the best caravan clubs to be a member of. From Di and I, we trust ALL members had a very Merry Christmas and we wish you a most Happy New Year and hope to see you at Kalbar.

President Paul

Right photo: QCC 2020 Christmas cake superbly made and iced by Pat Barr. Almost too good to be eaten. It went down well!!

QCC's newest life members, Carol and Kevin Day, were delighted to be given the privilege of cutting the three-tier Christmas cake. This was done prior to the Saturday meeting and then served at morning tea.

As mentioned on Page 3, the cake was made and decorated by a very talented Pat Barr.

KALBAR Kalbar is a small town and locality in the Scenic Rim area of South East Queensland. It is located near the Cunningham Highway and directly north of Mount French in the Fassifern Valley. It is part of the Scenic Rim Region local government area. Kalbar's population is approximately 750.

Settlement began at the location in 1876 and by 1890 a small town had developed. The town was once known as 'Fassifern Scrub' and then 'Engelsburg' after the first settler of the town. Kalbar has a very rich German history, having been established almost exclusively by German settlers, reflected today in the many Anglo-German road and street names as well as the many local German settler descendant surnames. In 1916 the name changed to Kalbar because of anti-German sentiment though only first applied to the railway station. The Engelsberg School of Arts did not change to the Kalbar School of Arts until July, 1918. The Mount Edwards railway line reached the town in 1916.

Kalbar State School opened in 1879. Engelsburg Post Office opened on 07 July 1897 and a receiving office had been open from 1878 but was renamed Kalbar in 1916.

During the 1899 referendum to decide if Australia should become a federation, Kalbar registered the highest 'no' vote of any town in Queensland. In 1920, the Kalbar School of Arts hall and half the businesses in town were destroyed by fire.

From 1961 to 1990, Kalbar held a large annual celebration, the Fassifern Potato Festival. The event included a street parade with motorised floats culminating at the showgrounds and continuation of festivities. Some artefacts from the festival can be found at the Templin Historical Museum. Harvest Festivals organised by the local Salvation Army church extended back to the 1920s. The annual agricultural show is held in June.

Kalbar offers shopping facilities, civic centre, hotel, showgrounds, school, historical churches, retirement village, parks and gardens.

Attractions include heritage listed buildings of the Wiss Emporium (above right) and Wiss House, cafes and art galleries.

As stated above, the annual Kalbar Show is held each year in June. The popular event began in 1926 as a calf show and has grown in size through the years.

Every year the variety and number of stands also continues to increase in line with the changing face of the Scenic Rim. More recently among the exhibitors and products on display was local wine, olives and gourmet cheeses. The ever popular sideshow alley, amusement rides and food stands are also a large part of the attraction. Sadly, the 2020 Kalbar Annual Show was cancelled due to COVID.

Yimbun Railway Tunnel bicycle ride by Jim and Sue Thorpe.

The Yimbun Railway Tunnel is a heritage-listed tunnel located at Sinnamons Lane, Harlin. Designed and built by Queensland Railways, it was completed 1910 and serviced the Brisbane Valley branch rail line.

Passenger services beyond Toogoolawah ceased in 1967, with the Toogoolawah rail motor being withdrawn in 1989 and the entire line closed in 1991.

On 27th November 2008 the tunnel was added to the Queensland Heritage Register and designated as a world heritage site.
