PRESIDENT'S REPORT IMBIL SHOWGROUND FEBRUARY 2024

The Theme for the February Rally was Valentines Day and the President's Picnic. A big thankyou to Gail Caddies and her Helpers for the decorations at the back of the stage and on the front table hearts and balloons.

On Wednesday caravans started arriving and in the absence of Noel Jones resting up after his hip operation the marshal team did a great job with rain on and off all afternoon. There were about 24 caravans in by Wednesday afternoon. A thank you to Pat Mander for writing up the White Board.

Thursday morning more rain on and off but that didn't stop the walkers from getting their exercise. As soon as we were able to get in the hall, we set tables up for Card Making with Pat Barr, and I counted 12 ladies busy working away. 2.30. Art Classes with Bert Beker, and about 8 people drawing which was good to see.

By the afternoon most of the caravaners had arrived. Happy hour the sun was shining. Thursday Night Dance Evening with Kevin and Carol Day. Kevin did a variety of dances. The night was a little hot and steamy but still enjoyable, other members played cards.

Friday morning started with the walkers as usual, and the golfers. This was a golf course with a difference. Firstly we didn't find the honesty box so we started playing anyway, it wasn't until we finished that we found the honesty box and a layout of the course; Wish we had the layout so we knew which way to go. 8am Health and Wellbeing Weigh-in with Minnie and I understand it isn't the person that loses the most weight it is about maintaining your weight. Sewing ladies were looked after by Fay Bell instructing about 12 ladies. Our committee meeting with some apologies this rally, but this meeting seemed to take a lot longer, not sure why.

Lawn Bowls with Ray MacDonald started at a later time than usual, to get better weather conditions. Some members stayed for dinner and many other members joined them at the bowls club. Friday night members played cards.

Saturday morning Forum started off with a minute's silence for the loss of a dear member Carmel Bridges who lost her battle on 17th January/ She will be sadly missed. Our Sunshine lady this rally was Fay Bell again filling in for Pam MacDonald and Fay did a good job. This rally first timer Nicky Deluca. Nicky joined in with all of the activities going and said she will be back.

The awards this rally 200 rallies for David and Helen Judge, 100 rallies for Tony and Sue Stevenson and 50 rallies for Colin Fitzgibbon and also Jeff and Jean Cochrane congratulations to you all. The President's Picnic, a huge thank you to Carol Day. Hope everyone enjoyed the steak burgers and ice creams or icys. Bocce like last time was stopped because of rain. To be continued at a later date. The Cent Auction was a lot of fun even more so if you won something. The auction raised $475 to go to our charities, well done everyone.

Saturday night across the road from the showgrounds was Imbil Bull Broncs Barrels rodeo where a lot of people attended, enjoying loads of music and fireworks. A well managed event.

Hope to see you next rally.

President Steve Langley.

RECOGNITION FOR OUR QCC MEMBER PATRICK HETHERMAN

On the 3rd February at the annual night of Champions for Rally Sport Queensland, Patrick Hetherman was inducted into the Queensland Rally Hall of Fame.

For 50 years, Patrick has been engaged in the sport. For 20 years the QCC Nomads contributed to Patrick's journey. For that Patrick is truly thankful and wished he could have been at Imbil rally to personally thank the Club.

Lead by Patrick and supported by the QCC Nomads, Patrick built a reputation for safety excellence amongst Competitors who said they felt safer doing shake downs with the Nomads in Queensland than at any other event around Australia. Even teams from overseas in the Asia Pacific Championship echoed the sentiment.

At the presentation there were thirteen of Patrick's family members covering four generations each one having an active involvement in motor sport.

Patrick commented that to be recognised by ones Peers is truly an honour .

Congratulations Patrick.

SOCIAL SHIRTS

Would any member wanting to order a Social Shirt, please let Barbara Rutherford know at or before the next rally so that an order can be placed.

Several people are waiting on shirts but a minimum number is needed before an order can be placed.

It may be nice to have one as an alternative for the State Rally but please remember they are a Social Shirt only and the official yellow shirt should be the one worn at the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the State Rally.

Cost of the shirts: $50 short sleeve;
$55 long sleeve.
