Well, what a nice rally. First time this year that we didn't get any wet weather for the whole rally. The only thing about the hall was that the lift was out of action, but it didn't seem to cause a problem.

Thursday morning, we were able to get in the hall, to set tables up for Card Making with Bev Green. The cards being made were absolutely beautiful. Great job done by Bev and her ladies. Bert and his drawing group did amazing work. There are clever members in the club. Thanks Bert not sure of how much Michael's expertise was called upon. Thursday night cards downstairs while upstairs dance evening with Kevin. There were three couples and Kevin taught some Slow Rhythm and Line Dances.

First up on Friday morning the walkers were at it. Golf was a chipping contest at this rally as the golf course was too far away. I wasn't able to compete, as I had many other things to do so, Daryl had my strokes for me. Daryl said that they were the worst I (Steve) had ever played. Thank you Daryl. 8am Health and Wellbeing Weigh-in with Diane Hogan looking after it in the absents of Minnie and Robyn. I am sure the fellas are doing better than the ladies. Sewing ladies had lovely work to display on Sunday morning. Afternoon Bowls organized by Ray MacDonald saw numbers down but they had a nice afternoon. Dinner at the Bowls Club Friday night saw quiet a group of us. We celebrated a day early for Robyn and Bert's birthday and had a great night. A huge thankyou to Gail Caddies for the pavlova, Robyn's favourite.

Saturday morning walkers, morning tea then followed up with our Saturday Forum. A minute's silence for the passing of Life member Margaret Thomas and Life member Jean Dale.

It was good to see Kevin and Pat Gower, Ross and Jan Munroe, Lyn and Ken Cragg, Keith and Jenny Fletcher, Michael Burdette and Lesley Siffleet, Paul and Marina Bruno, Peter Gawen and Lyn Hill in her new motorhome. No first timers this rally, second timers Paul and Joanne Kennedy lovely to have you with us again. No special awards at this rally. Once the official part of the Annual General Meeting concluded, Bert Beker Chaired the meeting for the election of the committee for 2024-2025.

Saturday afternoon Ladies Singles Disc Bowls saw some very fierce competition, Our winner this year was Desley Hinson with runner up Helen Judge. Congratulations ladies. Wonderful to see Terry and Denise Park call in to say hello and hope you will be back with us soon. Saturday night trivia with Richard and Michael. What can I say! Anything Richard is involved in there is always a lot of laughter. Thank you for a fun night.

Sunday pay treasurer, morning tea then Sunday General Forum conducted by Vice President, Olive Jones. Great job again, Next rally is our 75th birthday rally at Pine Rivers Showground. There are changes at this rally so please read the Wanderer and check the whiteboard for any changes.

Hope to see you there. Stay Healthy and Travel Safe and our Club Motto, Fellowship on wheels.

President Steve Langley.

ON QCC'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Well, QCC was born in 1949 (originally called the Caravan Club of Australia, Brisbane Branch) and the very first rally was in May on the foreshore at Deception Bay. I've written much about the first rally before - so, what should I write about this year? Seeing as it's QCC's 75th (diamond) birthday, I decided to focus on QCC's last major birthday, that is QCC's 50th birthday in 1999. Please enjoy the trip down memory lane – and some of you were there to remember it.

It was decided that the entire year of 1999 would be a celebratory year for QCC and there would be four events to celebrate the 50th birthday through the year. The celebrations started off with a dinner on 1st March at Crushers Leagues Club at The Grange for $11.60 per head.

May is of course QCC's birthday month, and the May rally was held at Rosewood Showground on 30th April to 4th May, attended by 62 QCC caravans (this was a QCC only event).

Sunday's entertainment at this rally was organised by a very talented couple of members, Marlene and John Rawlings. They had put together a show "A Swinging Safari", in which most club members either performed or acted as extras, or helped behind scenes. Yes, many of the acts were amateurish, but some were very professional – but everybody seemed to delight in their part of the show.

We (and the "tourists" on stage) were taken on an "around-the-world tour" and, at each place the tourists visited, act (s) relevant to the location were performed. The acts were either singing, music, dancing or comedy skits, and sometimes a combination of these. Examples of this are – the Can Can was danced in Paris (Reg & Stella Foster and Gus & Carol Fraser), the Clog Dance and skit were performed in Holland (Bert & Yvonne Beker, Dirk & Lien Schilpzand with Bob Rutherford the visiting Aussie), a visit by Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Phillip in England (Pat Kohr & Harold Lilley), and a snake charmer in India (Sandy Smith – Tom & Jacky's daughter). There were of course many, many more acts and locations than these.

Scotland – Trevor Bromley & Jim McMorine

The Londoner – Stan Thomas

Wales – featuring Margaret Thomas

The Booze Brothers – Dirk Schilpzand & Paul Whittaker

Archives holds three recordings of the show, created by Bert Beker (the official recording), Carol Osborne and Tom Smith. In 1999, copies of the official video could be purchased for $12.00 each. A commemorative program of the show was given to QCC members. Other entertainment over the weekend included a craft and hobby display, Bessemer cooking demonstration, dancing and Pick-a-box. But "A Swinging Safari" was without doubt the main event of the weekend.

Other clubs were invited to celebrate the birthday with QCC on 13-15 August for a special rally at Toogoolawah Showground at which a total of 82 vans attended. This rally had the friendly title of "Share with Other Clubs" rally. Most of the attenders were, of course, from QCC (53 vans), but we also had 5 vans from the Bundaberg Club, 18 vans from the Gold Coast Club, 5 vans from the Kookaburra Club and 1 from the Campervan Club. All visiting clubs were made very welcome. Entertainment over the weekend included a Shanghai Parachute Competition, Trivia, "Robbing Hood & Friar Uns-Tuck" taking collections for the State Rally raffle.

On Saturday, 4th September, a 50th Anniversary Picnic under QCC's marquee was held as near as possible to the site of the first rally in Deception Bay. And it was a beautiful day for a picnic. 91 people attended the picnic, including special guests Mayor Tom and Mrs Pat McLoughlin of the Caboolture Council, Neil and Marie Chesney and Gordon Harris (both Neil and Gordon attended the first rally in 1949) and 20 past members. There were speeches by President Sid Goddard, Neil Chesney, Gordon Harris and Barry Thurecht of the Suncoast Caravan Club, after which everyone settled down to enjoy the picnic, meeting up with old friends and having a delightful day. As a souvenir to commemorate the day, the second edition of "The Wanderer" July 1962 had been reproduced and was handed out.

To finish off the celebratory year, a special badge (displayed) was crafted and given to current and past members and visitors to commemorate QCC's 50th anniversary.

Before I finish this article, I will leave 1999 and repeat a few lines that I put at the end of my birthday article that I had inserted in "The Wanderer" for QCC's 60th birthday in 2009:

"Fellowship on Wheels" what does that mean to you? I know what it means to me. It means holding out a hand of friendship to those in the community who share with me the pleasure of caravanning. And the grip of this hand of friendship is strong enough to last a lifetime.

I trust you all enjoyed this little piece of QCC's history.

Wendy Gibson
Your Archivist.

QCC 75TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS'

Saturday 4th May there will be NO CLUB FORUM.

Hall will be closed to allow preparations for the Birthday celebrations.

11 am Guests and members arrive for birthday celebrations in Main Hall.
Followed by formalities e.g. welcome, reminiscences, cutting of the cake etc.

12 pm (or as timing permits) lunch will be served which will consist of hot and cold finger food.
Tea, Coffee, Cordial and Water available.

Catch up with members and enjoy the memorabilia display put together by Wendy Gibson, QCC Archivist. Wendy has a huge collection of past Club events and concerts in the Archives.

If anyone is interested in seeing a particular past event, please let Wendy know by email (gibsonwa1@bigpond.com) and she will be only too happy to organise a showing for you.

5 pm BYO Happy Hour and/or your evening meal to the Hall to enjoy with each other and be prepared to party into the night. Alcohol permitted in moderation.

6 pm Entertainers The Baby Boomer Party Band will begin entertaining us from 6 pm onwards.

DRESS CODE: Party Gear and Party Hats.

There are many food outlets in the immediate vicinity of the Showgrounds so plenty of choice as to whether you bring something with you in the van or, for visitors without vans, to pick up some takeaway or dine at one of the local restaurants. Maybe some would like to get together and order in pizza. Whatever you decide, please join in the fun in the hall and make it a night to remember.
